The Priest's Corner

With school starting and the suddenly cooler weather, my thoughts turn to Fall. Growing up in farm country, Erie County, Pa., late Summer meant haying and, with school starting, Fall was a time of harvesting, hay rides, and preparing for Winter. On long drives to my college, I have the luxury of watching the morning sky, the Fall sunrises, and the gradual turning of the leaves. On my drives, which are about an hour and a half, I often listen to the Mission St. Clare audio Morning Prayer, then I allow my mind to wander and hymns or old rock music pop into my mind. What I am really doing is giving myself space.

The first space is visual – I have the opportunity to experience amazingly beautiful sunrises. On the mornings when it is overcast, I've been captivated by the morning fog rising off trees with columns of fog clinging tenaciously to the top branches. This creates a sense of other-worldliness. I think the clouds, the fog, the trees, and the light seem to be arranged just for me – and I hold my breath for a few moments, hoping the moment doesn't end. It's a sight I usually see only in the late summer when it is humid enough for low-lying clouds, with hot days and cool nights, and it allows me to move from home to work with a nearly magical transition as both ends of my ride usually have bright, sunny skies. I have tried to capture these mornings on my camera, but I realized I can take only a mental picture – at least that way I have it with me always. Now some mornings I just pull over to the side of the road, say a prayer, gaze on this spectacular panorama and wonder how anyone could question if there is a God or if creation is anything other than an outpouring of God's love for us and sunrises and sunsets are daily expressions of that love.

The next space is sound – a lot of my memories link songs with events. This week, the hymn that keeps popping into my thoughts is "From the Fruit of All Creation," but "September Song" (the Lena Horne version) is a close second. While "September Song" can be a bit sad, both songs allow me to reflect on the bounty of blessings I receive – food, time, work, space to grow. The first stanza of the hymn are about the joys of work, creating, and being stewards of the earth.

For the fruit(s) of all creation,
thanks be to God;
for the gifts of every nation,
thanks be to God;
for the ploughing, sowing, reaping,
silent growth while we are sleeping, future needs in earth's safe-keeping,
thanks be to God.

After my sunrise mornings this week, I've been whistling this around the building. This hymn reminds me to be grateful to God for a wide variety of gifts. More importantly, this hymn reminds that rest and sleeping are also gifts from and gifts to God. Resting rejuvenates me for labor and praise, the growth we get from sleeping is the physical growth of youth and the rejuvenating growth as we age.

The next stanza fills intellectual and emotional spaces for me. Especially with Labor Day this weekend, when we sing this stanza I think of those who fought and died for fair labor practices. I think of those who demanded to be treated fairly and work in dignity. I think all work has dignity, and we don't always provide a just reward (financially) for labor, but in this hymn God's will be done. The labor referred to here is not what we do for a living – the work we do for wages. It is God's work in living out the command to love our neighbor as ourselves. The hymn lists some of the ways we can do this: caring for the hungry and despairing, not just feeding their bodies but feeding their souls.

In the just reward of labor,
God's will is done;
in the help we give our neighbor,
God's will is done;
in our world-wide task of caring for the hungry and despairing, in the harvests we are sharing,
God's will is done.

When we are helping others, caring for our neighbor, we are doing God's will. So as we prepare meals for others (the Merry Meal Makers and Meals for Miryam's), collect food for North Hills Food Bank, or share meals at the Men's Breakfast, our ministries are responding to how we started living into the commandment to help our neighbor in Deuteronomy, that we find and aid those in our community or any town of the Lord who needs help and give them help. We are to give this help with a joyous and open heart. By doing so, we live into Paul's prayer for us in Philippians that our love overflow more and more to help us determine that what is best is that which comes from God.

I find this hymn comforting (I'm used to singing it at Thanksgiving – it holds memories of family dinners and church services for me), but the song also allows us to acknowledge that some things confuse and confound us – that just when we think we have the answer, almost any answer, it slips away or changes shape. But if we continue to seek those answers together, even if the truth still confounds us, we will find that love has found us. Thanks be to God.

For the harvests of the Spirit,
thanks be to God;
for the good we all inherit,
thanks be to God;
for the wonders that astound us,
for the truths that still confound us,
most of all that love has found us,
thanks be to God.

It is in our making spaces that we find answers and peace, then seek more answers. The intentional way we use music or a sunrise to bring us closer to God also creates opportunities for us to be closer to and with each other.

Announcements

A volunteer is needed in the nursery during the 10 a.m. service this Sunday. Please notify Katie if you're available. stbrendans@comcast.net.

Brendan's Boots (Saturday, August 31). The parish hiking group will head to Coraopolis and Mile 0.0 of the bicycle-friendly Montour Trail this Saturday, August 31, after meeting at the church at 9 a.m. Participants will enjoy lunch afterwards at Carmody's Grille on Neville Island. Everyone is welcome; feel free to invite a friend. For more info, contact Tom Waseleski, twaseleski@comcast.net.

Book Club is on summer hiatus until September 5, but if you want to plan your beach reading, we'll be comparing two books, Jane Austen's classic "Pride and Prejudice" and "Eligible," a modern take on the story by Curtis Sittenfeld. Both are easy to borrow from the library in print or audio formats. (Feel free to cheat with the PBS series starring Colin Firth.) For more information, email Pat Carl at pkarrcarl@gmail.com. Happy reading!

Blessing of the Backpacks

All school children: Bring your backpack to church on Sunday, September 8, for a special blessing during the 10 a.m. service. Celebrate the start of a new school year in a spiritual manner, and let us celebrate YOU and let you know how much we love and support you.

Sunday School Begins September 8

Sunday School both for LAMBS and FISH will begin the week after Labor Day on September 8. All classes are held during the 10 a.m. Sunday service. The children will be released to the classes from church after the opening song and greeting with a "commission" from Fr. Regis. They will return for communion.

All classes will use the WHIRL Lectionary curriculum – reading, reflecting on, and discussing the weekly Gospel reading. The children will meet together for a prayer and song. The children will then be broken into two groups: pre-K to 2nd grade and 3rd to 5th graders. The younger students will follow the Godly Play method for the Bible story presentations.

The two groups will work together seasonally on a service project and will plan and participate in the Children's Liturgy, the fourth Sunday of the month. All children are welcome to participate in the Children's Liturgy by singing, reading the Scriptures, leading the Prayers of the People, serving as ushers, etc.

If you have questions, please email or see Julie Smith, jlsphone1@gmail.com, or Allison Kline, aaklrm@comcast.net.

The once-a-month 8 o'clock Coffee Hour is back! We'll be gathering between services September 8. If you can lend a hand, this month we'll also fold envelopes for Brother's Brother Foundation.

Did you know that part of Brother's Brother's mission is the distribution of used medical equipment to people in need all over the world? If you have any walkers, canes, crutches, bedside commodes, shower chairs, etc. that you no longer need, put them next to the food donation cart in the narthex and they'll get taken down to the Brother's Brother warehouse. Non-electric wheelchairs in good working condition are accepted, but all items must be clean and sanitized. Questions? Email Pat Carl at pkarrcarl@gmail.com.

Ministry fair. Interested in what we have to offer at St. Brendan's and what we are involved in as a congregation? The Ministry Fair will help to explain some of the opportunities at our church. Meet the people who are heading these activities and ministries and what they are about on September 15 after the 10 a.m. service. Stop by and get acquainted during Hospitality Hour.

If you lead a ministry and would like to have a spot to place some information on a table for the fair, please contact Janice Moore at chicago@zoominternet.net.

Save the date. Animal blessing, October 6.

Stay tuned for more information.

MUSIC MINISTRY

Senior Choir: I am excited as I look out over all the new faces at St. Brendan's. You can feel the energy and excitement in the air. As we approach the beginning of the new program year I hope that some of you will consider joining our music ministry. Hold that thought – no, you don't have to read music or be musically trained. The only requirement is to love singing and the desire to help enrich our liturgy by enhancing our ways of hearing, praying and experiencing the message of our Lord.

Music has always been an important part of St. Brendan's, even in the early days when just a few people joined together to lead the hymns; now the effort has grown to our largest choir of 15 members. Over the last few years we have had multiple choir members move away and our numbers have dwindled. Having a larger choir takes the pressure off everyone; if someone is sick or wants to take time off to travel or be away, it is easier to carry on. Also, people feel more secure singing in a larger group, plus it truly is fun being a part of a large, active group.

We rehearse on Wednesday evenings from 7:30 p.m. to 9:00 p.m., learning and reviewing two to three pieces of music. Rehearsal tapes can be provided, if needed. We then meet on Sunday morning at 9:00 a.m. to review the anthem and the hymns before the 10:00 o'clock service. Rehearsals began Wednesday, Aug. 28.

I have begun to choose and work on the anthems we will be singing in September and October and I would love to be optimistic and pick pieces that require a larger group of singers. Please contact me if you are interested. I will be happy to talk with you about time commitments or any other questions you may have.

Chime Choir: The Chime Choir will begin rehearsing in September. This is a multigenerational group for both youth and adults to work together; you must be at least 10 years old to join. It is helpful to read music but not mandatory.

We will be rehearsing on Sundays after church from 11:30 a.m. (about 10 to 15 minutes after the service ends, so everyone can grab coffee and a cookie) until 12:45 p.m. We will rehearse for 45 minutes, with the ending time impacted by the actual start time. Please contact me and let me know if you are interested in joining the chime choir and if you are able to read music.

North Hills Food Pantry. For the month of August we are asking you to donate food items that can be used in school lunches. The North Hills Food Bank needs any kind of non-perishable food. Please remember, no glass jars. If you have any questions, contact Larry Toler, ldtoler@aol.com. Thank you for your support.

Used ink cartridges. St. Brendan's benefits from donations of used computer ink cartridges. Please bring them to church and place the cartridge in the box near Katie's office. Thank you.

Easy Funds for St. Brendan's! You may not know it, but St. Brendan's earns 5% for each gift card that we sell! Basically, if you eat, you can raise funds for our church! It's easy! Just visit the vestry member who is selling gift cards in the narthex each Sunday after the 10 a.m. service, buy a gift card for Kuhn's and/or Giant Eagle, do your usual grocery shopping or gasoline pumping, then pay for it with the card purchased at St. Brendan's! Thanks for your support of the easiest fundraiser in town!

Sticks & Strings will not gather in August. However, the group will resume its second Thursday of the month meeting schedule in September. The next date will be September 12th at 7 p.m. in the library and everyone is welcome.

CRIS Advocacy. Christian Response In Emergency Situations meets monthly on the third Sunday in the library after the 10 a.m. service to determine distribution of the parish's outreach tithe each month. Each person present has an equal voice and vote on where the money goes.

This week we are praying for the work of Anchorpoint Counseling, a faith-based counseling, tutoring, crisis intervention, parenting and education support group (www.anchorpointministry.org). The next meeting will be Sunday, September 15. All are welcome.

Do you have a special prayer request? You can write one and leave it on the prayer plate by Regis' office. On Sunday those prayers are offered up to God during the 8:00 a.m. service. Each week they are collected by the Community of Hope and added to their daily prayers. You can also email prayer requests to stbrendans.coh@gmail.com. Community of Hope members will include those persons in daily prayers or send out a prayer via text or email to someone if requested. All prayers and requests are kept confidential.

Would you be interested in going to Wheeling, W.Va., to hear and see Presiding Bishop Michael Curry? In celebration of the 200th anniversary of St. Matthew's Episcopal Church in Wheeling, the church will feature a special presentation by the presiding bishop at Wesbanco Arena at 3 p.m. on Saturday, October 5. Wheeling is about one hour and 30 minutes from St. Brendan's. Tickets are $5. Click on the link to purchase yours:

Run for Thy Neighbor 5K (Saturday, September 28).

Mark your calendars and spread the word! Christ Episcopal Church, North Hills, Run for Thy Neighbor 5K will be held Saturday, September 28, at 9:00 a.m. Participants will meet at the Harmar Shelter located near Pie Traynor Field and swimming pool in North Park. This year's proceeds will benefit HEARTH, located in the North Hills.
