St. Francis and Blessing Pets

Please bring your pets (dogs, cats, rabbits, gerbils, geckos, horses, llamas, etc.) to our animal blessing at the 10:00 am liturgy on Sunday, October 6. They will be blessed during the liturgy. There will be another pet blessing at 11:30 (you know — just in case your pet needs that extra boost! LOL!) Actually, The 11:30 blessing is for those in the neighborhood who may not attend liturgy, but want their pets blessed. There will be veterinarians and other animal-needs vendors in the social hall after the service. You can get your picture taken there with your pet, for free!

Stories abound about how St. Francis could communicate with animals and feel at one with all of creation. He would walk great distances to share God's Good News. One day Francis stopped to preach near the town of Bevagna in Italy where he spotted a great number of birds of all varieties. Doves, crows and all sorts of birds swept up in the moment. Francis left his human friends and ran after them. The birds landed and waited patiently for Francis. He greeted the birds in his usual way, expecting them to scurry off into the air as he spoke. But they didn't move.

Francis called them "brother and sister birds" and told them to praise their Creator and always love God. He explained that God gave them feathers for clothes, wings to fly and made them noble among all creatures. They make their home in thin, pure air and without sowing or reaping they receive the Creator's guidance and protection. At this the birds were said to spread their wings, stretch their necks and make a path for Francis to walk through them touching their heads and bodies. He blessed them, then they flew off. After this, Francis wondered aloud why he never preached to birds before, and from that day on he made a habit out of it. The birds are said to have responded in turn.

One day a brother brought to Francis a rabbit, who had been caught in a trap. Francis advised the rabbit to be more alert in the future. He then released the rabbit on the ground to go on its way, but the rabbit hopped back onto the saint's lap. The rabbit was taken farther into the woods, but found its way back to Francis again. This sort of animal-human connection happened repeatedly, and Francis saw it as an opportunity to praise the glory of God. Fish also obeyed Francis. When one was caught, Francis always returned it to the water. On several occasions, reports of fish lingering around the boat from which Francis preached ran rampant. They would swim off only after Francis gave them permission to leave.

Perhaps the most famous animal connection is between Francis and the wolf of Gubbio. The story goes that this wolf was terrifying the people of Gubbio, killing and eating not only animals but people, too. The people took up arms and went after the wolf, but they were no match for it. Francis had pity on the frightened people and decided to go out and meet the wolf. People warned Francis, but he insisted that God would take care of him. The wolf charged out of the woods, but Francis made the sign of the cross, and the power of God caused the wolf to slow down. Francis was able to calm the wolf and in time the people of Gubbio made a pact to feed the wolf, and the wolf became meek. From that day on the people kept their pact, and the wolf lived for two more years among the townspeople, going from door to door for food.

Beautiful, sweet stories, aren't they? There was a special connection that Francis had with animals and nature. This is why we connect our pet blessing with this humble, earth- and nature-loving man from Assisi named Francis.

Announcements

Do you want to help the immigrants who are coming to our English as a Second Language classes? The students need volunteers who can babysit their very young children in the nursery while their mothers are in class. The need for babysitters is for Tuesdays and Thursdays from 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. We can help you to get your clearances if you don't have them yet! If you are interested, please call Joyce Donadee at 412-635-2312 or e-mail at jdjdonadee@gmail.com.

We celebrate the October birthdays of:

1 Kate Heston	1 Emly Bumbaco	1 Ken Parsons	2 Annemarie Malbon
5 Tim Michael	6 Nicholas Fleissner	7 LuAnn Aldridge	17 Mary Haider
18 Conor Wick	20 Mike Newton	21 Judy Flick	23 Gail Gil
29 Karen Dennis	31 Darrell Johnson

Newcomers, save the date – Join Father Regis and Ken for a newcomers' brunch after church on either October 13 or November 10 to learn more about life at St. Brendan's. Sign-up sheets will be on the Welcome Table and we will provide directions by email to the Peters' home in Valencia or the Moore's home in Seven Fields. Both locations are about 20 minutes north of the church with easy access off I-79. We look forward to seeing you – October 13 (Karen and Dean Peters, 404 Providence Ct., Valencia, Pa.) or November 10th (Janice and Dan Moore, 543 Dorchester Drive, Seven Fields, Pa.)

Adopt-a-Highway. Join St. Brendan's as it beautifies the roadside Saturday, Oct. 5, by picking up litter. Participants age 14 and up will meet at the church at 8:30 a.m. and carpool to the cleanup site, the Camp Horne Road interchange of I-279. If you'd like to help, sign the sheet on the narthex table or contact Tom Waseleski, twaseleski@comcast.net.

Blessing of the Animals, October 6.

As Regis said in his Priest's Corner, please bring your pet to church for our Pet Blessing Liturgy at the 10:00 a.m. service or come to the second blessing at 11:30 a.m.

On hand will be Dr. Brian Silvis, veterinarian and medical director; Jessica Strauss, certified in K9 rehabilitation from Steel City Canine Rehab; Linda Mitzel from Pet Photography. There will be Q&A, ask the experts, and so much more.

On the Feast of St. Francis, as we bless the pets we have with us, we are also remembering those pets we have lost or have died. If you send Mother Julie (jlsphone1@gmail.com) an image of your pet, the pet's name, and an anecdote, they will be compiled for a memorial video to be played during the service. Please send your images by October 4.

St. Brendan's Justice Ministry recommends how we can make a difference.

Numerous experts have said the key to real political change is to get more citizens to register and to get them to the polls to vote. We at St. Brendan's want to do our part.

In the entrance to the church you will find voter registration forms. They have the mailing address for Allegheny County. There are a few without the address for those who may not live in the county. Please affix a first-class stamp.

We are urging each parishioner to take three. When you are out to eat, ask your server if he or she is registered. Ask the clerk at the grocery store. Many service workers do not have the time to seek out a form and register. Ask your friends and neighbors, too.

If we all registered three people, we could make a real difference locally and even nationally. October 7 is the deadline to be registered for this year's November 5 election. Applications for an absentee ballot must be made by October 29.

YOU can make a difference. We also have opportunities to register new voters in the coming weeks:

Monday, September 30, at Avonworth High School.

Saturday, October 5, at Safran's market in Sewickley.

Manageable shifts are available and training will be provided.

Sign-up sheets are in the narthex. For more information call Marilyn at 412-427-2715.

We celebrate the October wedding anniversaries of:

3 Emily & Brad Zupancic	4 Nancy & Wilder Bancroft	4 Allison & Phil Burdette
4 Ruth & Steve Horton	12 Mary & Karl Haider	17 Kelli & Bobby Cerra
17 Brigid & James Christenson	22 Saundy & Tom Waseleski	25 Joan & Paul Klinefelter
31 Mike Newton & Peter Sweet

We are grateful for our October Hospitality Hour Hosts.

Second truck for Haiti: Isaac Mondelus, our parishioner from Haiti, is purchasing a second truck bound for Haiti. Donations are requested to help fill the truck with items such as: sewing machines, light-weight clothing (no sweaters, or extra-large sizes), bicycles, toothbrushes, toothpaste, and school supplies (pens, pencils, notebooks, sharpeners). Boxes will be provided for collection. Isaac and the Justice Ministry gratefully appreciate any help you can give.

A donation to the Brendan's Family & Friends fund is the perfect way to honor a special person or event. BFF funds are earmarked for unbudgeted building needs. Please pick up a BFF card in the narthex and make a donation today. Thank you for making a difference at St. Brendan's by becoming a BFF donor.

Quilt Raffle. Two beautiful handmade quilts have been donated to St. Brendan's to raise funds for our parish. One is a Pittsburgh Penguins quilt made just in time for hockey season! The other is an animal print quilt made by Nancy Skavish, a beloved founding member who passed away a few years ago. Consequently, the Book Club will be sponsoring a quilt raffle, and tickets will be sold after church and during upcoming fundraising events. Be sure to check out these beautiful works of art and purchase some tickets. You just might win! Proceeds will benefit children's Christian formation efforts here at St. Brendan's. Feel free to see Chris Botti or Pat Carl if you need more info. Thank you!

Adult Formation Study – Job and “The Mystery of Suffering: Spiritual Reflections” by Richard Rohr.

The Book of Job is almost too difficult to understand. However, Job has a lot to teach us about his relationship with God and suffering. Join us for a nine-week study, facilitated by Ruth Getz, on the important themes woven throughout the Book of Job and a time of reflection on the mystery of suffering. This book is easy to read and understand! You may sign up for this study, which is being offered Sundays from 9:00 a.m. to 10:00 a.m. and Wednesdays from 6:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. Books may be purchased new or used from Amazon (amazon.com).

Please see below the new Hospitality Hour schedule that begins this October and runs for 12 months. It's a tradition at St. Brendan's that each household is assigned to host hospitality in the social hall after the 10:00 a.m. Sunday service once a year. Hospitality is a great time for members and visitors to connect, and the efforts of each host are appreciated by everyone. If you are unavailable to host on the date you've been assigned, please switch dates with someone, then let Katie know. Thank you for doing your part in this important ministry.

Book Club is reading Michelle Obama's memoir "Becoming" this month, now that it's easier to get from the library! Join us for discussion and a fun time on Thursday, October 10, at 7 p.m. in the conference room off Regis' office. "Becoming" is available in both print and audio formats.

North Hills Food Pantry. For the month of September we are asking you to donate canned items, fruits or vegetables. The North Hills Food Bank needs any kind of non-perishable food. Please remember, no glass jars. If you have any questions, contact Larry Toler, ldtoler@aol.com. Thank you for your support.

Easy Funds for St. Brendan's! You may not know it, but St. Brendan's earns 5% for each gift card that we sell! Basically, if you eat, you can raise funds for our church! It's easy! Just visit the vestry member who is selling gift cards in the narthex each Sunday after the 10 a.m. service, buy a gift card for Kuhn's and/or Giant Eagle, do your usual grocery shopping or gasoline pumping, then pay for it with the card purchased at St. Brendan's! Thanks for your support of the easiest fundraiser in town!

CRIES Advocacy. Christian Response In Emergency Situations meets monthly on the third Sunday in the library after the 10 a.m. service to determine distribution of the parish's outreach tithe each month. Each person present has an equal voice and vote on where the money goes.

This month we are praying for the work of the American Red Cross, www.redcross.org, and Brother's Brother Foundation, www.brothersbrother.org. The CRIES Committee has decided to give the entire September distribution to relief for victims of Hurricane Dorian. The next meeting will be Sunday, October 20. All are welcome.

Used ink cartridges. St. Brendan's benefits from donations of used computer ink cartridges. Please bring them to church and place the cartridge in the box near Katie's office. Thank you.

Do you have a special prayer request? You can write one and leave it on the prayer plate by Regis' office. On Sunday those prayers are offered up to God during the 8:00 a.m. service. Each week they are collected by the Community of Hope and added to their daily prayers. You can also email prayer requests to stbrendans.coh@gmail.com. Community of Hope members will include those persons in daily prayers or send out a prayer via text or email to someone if requested. All prayers and requests are kept confidential.

Trinity Cathedral Walk-In Ministry. Every five weeks Brendanites help to staff the Walk-In Ministry at Trinity Cathedral downtown, feeding and clothing 70 to 90 desperately needy people. You can help by donating children's diapers; new, white athletic socks and underwear for women and men; toothpaste, razors and travel size cans of shaving cream. Please leave donations in the wicker basket outside Regis's office. If you might be interested in volunteering at the cathedral in person, please see Linda Schneider, Meg Overby or Tim Austin.

Run for Thy Neighbor 5K (Saturday, September 28).

Mark your calendars and spread the word! Christ Episcopal Church, North Hills, Run for Thy Neighbor 5K will be held Saturday, September 28, at 9:00 a.m. Participants will meet at the Harmar Shelter located near Pie Traynor Field and swimming pool in North Park. Come ready, rain or shine, to run, walk, cheer, sponsor and/or volunteer the day of the 5K!

This year's proceeds will benefit HEARTH, located in the North Hills. HEARTH provides transitional services and housing for families who are survivors of domestic violence or other trauma and experience homelessness. HEARTH helps participants become independent and economically self-sufficient by providing housing, basic needs, health services, transportation, and much more including a requirement to return to school for training. <http://runforthyneighbor5k.org/>.

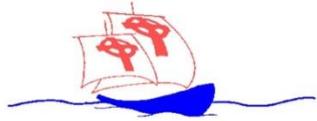

Presiding Bishop Michael Curry's Public Address (Saturday, October 5).

Would you be interested in going to Wheeling, W.Va., to hear and see Presiding Bishop Michael Curry? In celebration of the 200th anniversary of St. Matthew's Episcopal Church in Wheeling, the church will feature a special presentation by the presiding bishop at Wesbanco Arena at 3 p.m. on Saturday, October 5. Wheeling is about one hour and 30 minutes from St. Brendan's. Tickets are $5. Click on the link to purchase yours:

<https://www.etix.com/ticket/p/5841774/bishop-michael-curry-wheeling-wesbanco-arena>. Contact Regis or Frances Kinley if you're interested or sign up in the narthex.

There are six people going so far. If you have an interest in going, you can also purchase your $5 admission ticket at the door at the last minute. Seating is first come, first serve. It would be helpful to know in advance so we can make a reservation at a restaurant afterwards for dinner. Please call or text Frances Kinley at 304-281-4790 with questions. We can carpool from the park-and-ride at the Mt. Nebo exit of I-79 departing at 1:30 p.m. We should be back by 8:00 pm.
